LIGHTS OUT™

VOLUME 7 :: MYUNG-JAN LEE

This is my debut work, Lighter But Glitter to you know, the original title is An Evening Something Wonderful May Happen!

After ten years, we're putting it in the spotlight again. Like presenting a face without any makeup, I would like to present to you lighter but just as it was 10 years ago...warts and all. Kind of embarrassing, but I hope you enjoy it.

*Myung-Jin Lee
April, 2001*

LAST VOLUME
I HAD A BOM-B IN WITH A QUART OZA UPGRADE.
IT'S...UH, RATHER NOT TALK ABOUT IT.

Story So Far...

LIGHTS OUT

That Gun is such a kiddie! There were no mutant sea creatures in Volume 6, but there was an awesome beachfront brawl between Gun and the sleazy Jee-Bin, back in Gun's hometown. Of course, the fight didn't seem so awesome to Gun's mom, who had asked Gun to give up his violent ways. Feeling that his time at Northern Art High School and the Lucky Residence had failed to change Gun for the better, his mother forbade him to return, and indeed Gun's friends returned to Seoul without him. But Gun's nothing if not stubborn, and despite his mother's wishes, he made the decision to return to the Residence...and to his lady love, Seung-Ah.

In the next volume of

LIGHTS OUT™

Are you kidding me? Gun has another girl pining after his perfectly proportioned physique? Seems that way, and the sexy Gora is ready to do anything to be Gun's new girl. She has the advantage of experience on her side, but will it be enough to sway Gun into saying yes? Or will the sweet little Seung-Ah be able to outdo her? It would be Lights Out without a little two-fisted action to accompany the romance, and it's not Gun who's throwing down next time around, but Tae-Min. What gives? You'll have to pick up Volume 9 to find out!
